

Millana in Concert

at the Galveston Art League Gallery

Nancy House and Oleg Novinkov invite you to join them on August 28 from 4 until 6 in the afternoon at the Galveston Art League Gallery, 2117A Postoffice, Galveston to enjoy some of the most popular songs in Russia today performed by Millana Nova.

Millana is the composer of the music and author of the lyrics that she sings. Having completed 2 CDs, she is currently working on her third. Her Russian pop ballads are playing on radio and TV in Russia, the Ukraine, the U.S. and played onboard the International Space Station. She is the first composer to write and premier a special song for the crew working onboard the ISS; the composition included an astronaut voice from orbit.

Millana in concert at the Russian Embassy in Kabul, Afghanistan

She participated in the highest rated TV shows in Russia (Novoe Vremechko, Pryamaya Rech) and in the Ukraine (Utro s Nami). She performed at NASA's 50th Anniversary Celebration at the Galveston Convention Center, at Yuri Gagarin's night concerts in Houston, in Cologne, Germany, and in Red Square, Moscow.

The Galveston Art League Gallery is located at 2117A Postoffice in Galveston between 20th and 21st just north of Broadway and south of the Strand. Parking is free on Sunday. Please RSVP to Nancy at 281-337-5990 or nghouse1@verizon.net.

For a map or to preview Millana in concert follow these links.

Directions to GAL: <http://www.galveston.com/artleague/map/>

Millana performing:

on Russian TV: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eUgUIJJCcR4>

on the ISS: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DT9I923b47s>

Millana's website: www.millana-nova.ru